Hurricane Humor

A hurricane, so they tell me, is not a laughing matter, although sometimes they may be the cause of some rather humorous happenings.

For instance, Clarence Everett was telling about that time during the 1928 hurricane when the lake broke and broken water started to come up in Belle Glade. Clarence ran the new Ford garage where Glades Chevrolet is now and his father was town clerk. In the house with the Everetts was the proprietor of one of the town's three filling stations, and his wife. Now his lady was more than just pleasingly plump, she was, as they say in the society columns, of ample proportions.

When the water started to rise in the house, Clarence contrived a stepladder of chairs, table and ice box by which to climb into the attic. This good lady, being of a very modest disposition, insisted that the men all leave the room while she negotiated the ascent. She had been particularly cautioned to step only on the ceiling joists, but she had not made two steps in the darkness, when with a rending crash, the plaster shattered and down came two of the whitest, barest and biggest legs in Palm Beach County. Clarence said it looked pretty ridiculous, to say the least.

The morning after the storm there wasn't an undamaged building in Belle Glade except Tedder's Hotel. The women and children were beginning their walk towards West Palm Beach and working parties were being organized. Food was available from wrecked stores, but although the water was knee deep everywhere, the workers were, like the Ancient Mariner without any a drop to drink.

Slim Rutledge used to have a little ice house about eight feet square beside the Pioneer Service Station, now operated by a Negro. Someone had reported that it now was beside the road at the eastern town limits. Several men walked down there intending to get some ice to melt for drinking water. Two of them struggled to unlatch the door. It swung open, but instead of a cake of ice, out popped a big black Negro—a live one at that! (There were so many dead ones lying everywhere that a live Negro was something of a novelty, those first few days.)

He said he had gotten inside to escape the wind, but the latch had jammed and he couldn't get out. Why he didn't smother, freeze, drown or get beaten to death by cakes of ice was the mystery of the day. Maybe it wasn't so funny to the ice man, but the others got a big laugh from this surprise appearance. He must have had a ride something like that of Blondy Newman. Blondy was a carpenter who had just finished building himself a small house in Chosen. When the dike burst, the surging flood took that house and rolled it like a barrel down to Belle Glade. Next morning Blondy staggered to the hotel looking as though he had been through a meat grinder. He had already got hold of some liquor and he recounted in profane detail how he had been tossed about with bed, dresser, chair and table like a rock in a concrete mixer. Blondy was dead serious but it sure was comical to hear him tell it.

Among the first to go to West Palm Beach was Charlie Tryon, but after staying one day and getting his cut feet doctored, he and Tom Jackson returned to help with the cleaning up operations. They arrived here at night and found the hotel crowded. There was not even floor space to lie on, so they decided to sleep out doors. Near the bridge was quite a pile of new pine caskets.

The boys climbed up and bedded down inside a couple on top of the pile, pulling the lids over them to keep off the dew. Next morning Charlie was awakened by someone pounding on his lid. It was Tom. "Get up, Charlie," he shouted, "and see who's here."

we've been sleeping with. Every one of these boxes has got a dead man in it!"

This same pile of coffins, or rather fresh ones in the same place, got Earl Daniels into a jam. Earl was captain of the little state dredge, "Florida," which had been sent to clear the canals for navigation, since the roads were nearly impassable. His dredge was towed into Belle Glade during the night, and a line was made fast to this pile of coffins. After daylight, when his men saw a stack of 20 or 30 corpses heaped up near the boxes, half of them jumped ship and he had to hunt another crew. And that was no joke to Earl.

They say it's an ill wind that blows nobody good. Just before the '28 hurricane "Med" Howell took a couple of deputies to Ritta Island to arrest a Negro named Freeman Smith, who was charged with killing another Negro with an old army bayonet. Freeman pleaded guilty, but when it came time for the trial the judge had to turn him loose. All the witnesses had been drowned.

The hurricane of 1926 was the one that ruined Miami and near by. It came out of Moore Haven, but the east side of Lake Okechobee suffered comparatively little damage. John Pickett tells how a hot-shot reporter happened to be in South Bay hunting something sensational to write up. He overheard some folks remarking that since the storm they had heard no news from Okeelanta, and had seen no one from there, not even old Sam Cooper who usually showed up every few days.

The newsman rushed back to town and wrote a great spread to the effect that no news had been received from the isolated settlement of Okeelanta and it was feared that the town was in distress or was even wiped out. Right away the good people of West Palm Beach dispatched a boat loaded with groceries and supplies. When it got to Okeelanta the folks there did not know what to make of it. Nobody had got hurt or was in need. They had not gone to South Bay simply because they had no particular reason to go there.

About the same time a party of officials had stopped at Mr. Riedel's hotel in Belle Glade, which was operated by Mrs. Helen Lanham. They arrived late, long after supper had been served. Mrs. Lanham apologized, saying that she had nothing prepared for them to eat, but as a special treat she could serve them with some 'gator tail steak and fresh cornbread. One of these men high-tailed back to town and put into the paper that Belle Glade had been devastated. People there had been reduced to subsistence on cornbread and alligators. And so that's how a lot of these rumors got started.

Junior Garden Club Elects Kenny Hair

Growth Declines Slightly

The Florida Development Commission reports the state's industrial growth declined slightly in the first half of 1958, but the number of new plans was still impressive.

The commission stated 296 new plants and major expansions, creating 10,000 new jobs, were announced for Florida in the first six months of this year. Annual rate for the first half of 1958 was 69 per cent of the 1957 figure when 853 new plants and expansions were reported throughout the year.

Florida Business Note

While the Sunshine State is rapidly becoming one of the world's largest insurance centers, with dozens of companies moving offices here, Florida's own Gulf Life remains the largest insurance company with its home office within the state.

MAUSOLEUM Gardens

ARCHITECT'S MODEL OF FIRST UNIT

Our Purpose . . . We believe that a large community of people made homogeneous by the very nature of the area in which they live, deserves a final resting place in that area.

TO BE CARRIED AWAY FROM HOME FOR BURIAL CAN ONLY BE CONDONED AS A MATTER OF EXPEDENCY. HERETOFORE IT HAS BEEN EXPEDIENT DUE TO THE SOIL AND PERIODIC HIGH WATER . . .

WE PROPOSE TO ELEMIMATE THAT FACTOR BY PROVIDING ABOVE - GROUND BURIAL.

On memorializing the dead we also serve the living. Humanity's finest sentiments of love and devotion, its most profound and sacred expressions of the glory of life and God are the uplifting themes that cemeteries can develop.

We propose to do this by employing impressive architecture, beautiful statuary and marble, by the tasteful design of landscaped gardens, with pools and fountains. Here will be provided a setting of special beauty and dignity for community services and ceremonies.

We believe that any cemetery should perform more than its inherent function of just being a depository.

It should express, not the sorrowful morbid aspects of Death, but the nobler instincts and loving nature of the living.

IT SHOULD PROVIDE REMEMBRANCE . . .

. . . For who wants to be forgotten?

Civic groups, fraternal groups, as well as families and religious groups will find here an appropriate place for these memorials.

FOREVERGLADES MAUSOLEUM GARDENS PROPOSES TO PROVIDE A METHOD OF BURIAL SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER, TO FULFILL A VITAL NEED OF THE LIVING, AS WELL AS THE DEAD, CREATING NOT ONLY CONVENIENCE, BUT AN UPLIFTING PRIDE OF COMMUNITY OWNERSHIP AND ACHIEVEMENT.

Election Dec. 1 For Port Mayaca Board of Trustees

At the first meeting in December the Port Mayaca Cemetery Board of Trustees will name officers for the coming year. The board, composed of representatives from Belle Glade, Pahokee and South Bay, has been headed the past year by Walter Ashley, former city councilman.

Ashley, who has been on the board since it was created in 1953, served with C. R. Wetherington, Pahokee and S. J. Fisher, South Bay. Fisher was recently replaced by Councilman Henry Eilers when the former retired from public service. Wetherington replaced Louis Mimms in June when Mimms term of office as councilman ended. Nov. 12 the Belle Glade Commission reappointed Ashley to the board.

Created in 1953 by a trust agreement after the City of Pahokee maintained Port Mayaca Cemetery since before 1928, records show, the board meets on the first Monday of each month to carry on the administration of the cemetery. Funds for the operation are obtained through the sale of plots and a special assessment to each of the three cities represented. Mrs. Dorothy Fletcher is the present secretary. She replaced Mrs. Dorothy Graham, Pahokee, in 1956.

The current 1958-59 budget of Port Mayaca is $9,735.50. The income from the sale of lots was estimated at $4,775. The balance of $4,958.50 must be appropriated from each city based on the 1950 census figures.

These figures set the population at 7,219 for Belle Glade, 4,472 for Pahokee and 1,045 for South Bay. Income will be $2,526.35 from Belle Glade ($376), $1,735.48 for Pahokee ($256) and $396.67 (85¢) for South Bay. This is paid quarterly in advance.

ed if the juvenile officer had foreseen the family $3 for a tank of gas so they could have departed from Palm Beach County.

Commenting on Rardin's statement, Duncan said he feels the action was justified, if for no other reason, that it now gives these children the basic security to which they are entitled regardless of the county costs. He went on to say that the action had been concurred with by Jackson County, Fla. Judge McCrery, who had previous action with the family since this county was their resident county.

Also, Duncan said, Acting Juvenile Judge Dorr Davis approved the action. "Had Judge Davis felt that a tank of gas was the solution, he certainly would have ordered it," he said.

Monday the County Commission approved Rardin's motion to turn details of the case over to County Judge Richard Robbins (previously ill) "to let him know what it cost to take care of the family."

workers; stenographers, clerks, and typists. If you're looking for work and haven't registered with us, do so today. Also, we have numerous qualified truck drivers, heavy equipment mechanics, accountants, foremen and salesmen registered. Any employer who needs, or contemplates needing, a worker of this type, call us today.

Unemployment Compensation
While it is our primary aim to place the worker in a suitable job with as little delay as possible, at times this cannot be done immediately. The eligible worker is then advised about his possible Unemployment Compensation benefits. Almost immediately the person will ask how long it takes to receive benefits. Assuming, of course, that the person is eligible for benefits, it takes about three weeks. Although this seems like a long time, after following a claim through each step it takes before payment is made (which we Managers did while in Tallahassee), it is truly amazing that it does not take longer. Without going into detail, one of the most important factors in keeping the Unemployment Compensation running smoothly is that EMPLOYERS take care of all correspondence relating to a possible claim immediately. The Tallahassee office informs us that this is the major reason why it takes so long. If you own protection, as well as the employee's, do not disregard notices or letters regarding Unemployment Compensation. People that are out of work through no fault of their own and are eligible for benefits will thus be served promptly, and those not entitled to benefits will be disqualified just as promptly.

NEGRO NEWS

Gifford Loses; Cats Now Hold 1st Place Alone

Gifford High School received their first conference setback Thursday night at the hands of Carver High 30-4, which automatically gave the Southeastern Florida Athletic Conference title to undefeated twice-titled Lake Shore at Belle Glade. Lake Shore stopped Carver 20-7.

Gifford is now 2-1-1, the tie was with the Bobcats. Gifford stopped Dania 42-0, Ft. Pierce 20-13, tied 14-14 with Lake Shore before Thursday.

For the Bobcat season in the conference their other games after the Gifford tie included a 21-0 win from Dania, and 26-0 victory over Ft. Pierce and the Carvin win for a 3-0-1 record.

Out of the loop, the Bobcats won 36-0 over North Dade, their opener, 6-0 over Roosevelt of West Palm Beach, and won in the history of the competition, tied Class "A" Mays of Miami 9-0 and slaughtered Stone High of Melbourne 63-0 to come within one point of their previous high scoring game.

The only possible Sarasota-Lake Shore comparison is this: Gifford and Sebring tied 26-26; Sarasota later beat Sebring 19-7.

Lake Shore could well be the best Negro team in the area since the only other record better than Lake Shore's 6-0-2 is a 6-1-2 record of Dillard, better perhaps, since the Ft. Lauderdale squad is a larger, Class A school.

Golden Rams Push Over Okeechobee Despite Sharp Brahman Pass Attack

Belle Glade High School's Golden Rams opened up on a weaker team Friday night and bumped the Okeechobee Brahman 27-6 at Memorial Field to snap a seven-game losing streak. Okeechobee limped home with a 1-8 season record while the Rams made it 2-7 and insured a better finish than last year when they were humiliated 1-9 for the year.

John Chamblee started the scoring midway in the first quarter on a 75-yard run after an Okeechobee drive stalled deep in Ram territory. Early in the second stanza Skipper Poole ran 48 yards for a score which was nullified by a penalty. Minutes later Doug Sands intercepted a Leonard Hayes pass and scampered 32 yards to score. With three minutes remaining in the half, drives by Chamblee and Charles Lutz moved the ball to the three and Jeff Thomas sneaked from the Quarterback slot.

Then with five seconds remaining Lutz shot a pass to Thomas from the Ram 40 for 30 yards and Thomas galloped the remaining distance to score. Skipper Poole kicked three extra points.

The sharp passing arm of Hayes caused the Rams trouble all evening as he hit 14 of 21 tosses. Three were intercepted. Late in the fourth quarter the Brahman scored using six plays; five of which were Hayes' passes.

The Rams had been penalized and were working on a fourth down with 20 yards to go. They jumbled on a pass and it fell incomplete. Okeechobee took advantage of the poor Ram pass defense and scored in six tries from their 46.

Defensively Skipper Poole, David Binkley, Russell Burry and Ed Lively helped the Ram cause as Chamblee, Poole, Thomas and Lutz did most of the offensive work.

Edgar Johns and Eddie Shore aided Hayes in their fruitless efforts.

High School Graduates Offered Jobs by U. S. D. A.

Eighteen-year-old or older high school graduates with two years in biology general science and agriculture are offered positions as inspector in the meat packing and poultry processing plants in seven southern states by the US Department of Agriculture.

Half Time Show Enjoyed By Crowd

The Belle Glade High School Band presented a show that was thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators during half time of the football game here with Okeechobee vs the Rams.

No wonder the swing is to FORD for '59!

19 Ford Fairlane 500 Club Victoria... one of the 19 new Ford's that ride on TREX card tires.

Ford beauty pays you extra dividends in comfort

- Plenty of leg room... There's plenty of unobstructed room in both front and rear seats—even for long-legged six-footers.
- New head room—even hot sun... Ford is spacious. Unlike the market competitor you can wear your hat, front seat or back.
- 6 Passengers, not just 4, ride in comfort... Ford's seats are softer, sturdier. And the man in the middle doesn't "bottom out" on bumpy roads as in many other cars.
- Wide doors for easier entry... Ford doors are wider than the top competitive make... and have convenient 2-stage door checks.
- Easy to use trunk space... Ford's deep-trunk opening lets you load or unload with far less "lift" than competition.
- A frame that surrounds you with safety... Zephyr rides within the protection of Ford's solid wide-base frame. You will not get this protection in any other low-priced car.

Pledge Rites Held Chapter Donates $100 To School

Five new members were pledged to Beta Xi Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Society at a night ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Ted Roman.

Those pledged were Mrs. Irvin Burnett, Mrs. Bob Gressinger, Mrs. Wendell Williams, Sam Knight and Mrs. William Rhodes. The impressive rites were conducted by Mrs. Neil DePonte, assisted by Mrs. Ted Roman, Mrs. Ray Kent, Jr., and Mrs. C. L. Todd. Pledges were presented.

Overlaid with the traditional Beta Sigma Phi cloth, the ritual table was centered with an arrangement of yellow roses in a low black bowl flanked by candles, designating the sorority colors.

During the business session the chapter voted to donate $100 to the Okechobee Camp School. Announcements were made of the Secret Sister party to be held Dec. 11 at the next meeting, and of the fall dance and Christmas party combined to be held at the Country Club Dec. 13. This party will be held jointly with the Exemplar Chapter.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee was served by the hostesses Mrs. Roman and Mrs. Ray Kent, Jr.

OES Votes $50 To Endowment Fund

Boy Scouts Campout At Old Indian Site

Boy Scout Troop 602, of Lake Harbor, enjoyed an overnight trip to "Sam Jones Old Town" in Indian Camp site in the Everglades. This was the new Troops first camp-out. In addition to Indian Mound exploration, the boys worked on their second class requirements.

The group consisted of Claude Robertson, Gary Reynolds, Donald Shortnacy, Jerry Haulcomb, Billy Conley, Van Robertson, and Dale Henderson. The boys were accompanied by E. W. Weaver, Scoutmaster, R. O. Plank, Troop Committeeman, and Buddy Weaver, Asst. Scoutmaster. The Troop plans call for another outing during Christmas Vacation.

'Bird' Has Changed Since Pilgrim Days

The turkey which struts the barnyard today probably wouldn't recognize the gobbler that provided the Pilgrims with their first Thanksgiving feast.

The resemblance between the two birds is comparable to the "before and after" pictures which accompany most body-building advertisements.

The pilgrim bird was a skinnier, scraggly, long-legged athlete who toughened up the meat on his bony frame by scooting through the woods at a rapid clip.

The modern turkey is an over-stuffed, full breasted beauty with a much larger body and short, meaty legs. Exercise for modern adult turkeys consists of walking around the barnyard at a slow, deliberate pace.

Possibly the only joy a turkey raiser gets from a turkey is counting the money after he is rid of the bird. For turkeys have frail constitutions, miserable dispositions, and must be coddled and coaxed to market. Trouble starts when mother turkey lays her eggs, and the father turkey does his best to search them out and break them. If the turkey egg hasn't been pecked or stomped into oblivion, it will hatch in 28 days, after being kept at a temperature of 100 degrees — no more, no less.

Then the little turkey gets the vitamin treatment and is carefully guarded until ready for market between the age of four to seven months.

Why do farmers raise turkeys? The answer might be in the Department of Agriculture report that last year turkey raising amounted to more than a 300 million dollar business.

SWEET CORN GROWERS ...

Practice the 4's to stop leaf blight

use DU PONT PARZATE^R

sine fungicide

RIGHT MATERIAL Du Pont "Parzate" powder or liquid, effectively controls Helminthosporium leaf blight on sweet corn.

RIGHT AMOUNT For "Parzate" powder, 2 pounds per 100 gallons should be used. The correct mixture for "Parzate" liquid is 2 quarts, plus 3/4 pound sine sulfate per 100 gallons.

RIGHT WAY Make sure that both sides of leaves are thoroughly covered. If applied improperly, even the best fungicide will be wasted.

RIGHT TIME Spray over 5 to 7 days. If disease situation in area is critical, spray more often.

"Parzate" makes a superior dust because of its fine particle size. Dusts should be used only when time or field conditions do not permit spraying. Sprays give superior disease control and resist washing off.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River Says

Dear Mister Editor:
 I got a heap of things to be thankful for this Thanksgiving. I'm mighty thankful I got good health, which I attribute to the fact I save my energy and don't work too hard. I figured a long time ago it's better to be healthy and delinquent than paid up and run down.
 I'm thankful we ain't got but one world. Us Americans couldn't afford to finance more than one world. And I'm thankful we ain't got but one Chiang Kia shek. He can get it in more trouble between changes of the moon than we can get out of between Hayley's Comets.
 I'm thankful the country is full of Republicans, Democrats, conservatives, radicals, politicians, statesmen, and Senate committees, because as long as we got everybody trying to get into the act there ain't no chance of any one of them stealing the show.
 And I'm thankful for the finer things in life, like the count-down and up-and-at-em milkshake, the sanforized shirt and non-squeeze girdle, the fountain pen that writes under water and them TV singing commercials. But I'm also thankful that scientists still ain't found no better way to preserve the American home than for the good woman of the house to dip her wedding ring in dishwasher three times a day.
 I'm thankful I didn't make no big crops this year, because not holding much, I ain't losing sleep over not selling when the price was right. I'm thankful a farmer's output ain't always figured by what he's thinking in his barn. What he was thinking during the year might be as important as what he is producing. So far, Congress ain't put no income tax on what a feller is thinking. Many a time I've been setting in front of the fire and my old lady accused me of doing when my thoughts had done one above the level of the weeds in my fields and I was ransacking with international problems right up alongside Secretary Dulles.

 I'm mighty thankful I'm living in America, don't make no difference if it does cost four cents to mail a letter or what. Some confusion over whether the unions is working for the companies or the companies for the unions. At least you don't hear about no diplomats running around over Europe passing the hat for us.
 And I'm always mighty thankful at this time of year that Congress ain't in session. The country is a heap safer when we got them fellers at home for a spell where we can watch 'em.
 Yours truly,
 Uncle Dan

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the ravages of tuberculosis are felt in many homes in this country regardless of race, creed or economic status, and
 WHEREAS, tuberculosis annually costs the people of the United States more than $500,000,000 in case finding, care of patients, health education, rehabilitation, research, pensions and public assistance, and
 WHEREAS, the work of the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis Association, aimed at preventing the spread of tuberculosis, will help bring an end to the economic loss and personal tragedy caused by the disease, and
 WHEREAS, Christmas Seal dollars are used to teach people about tuberculosis and how it can be prevented, to teach people how to keep well, to find the unknown cases of tuberculosis, to help tuberculous patients return to useful, happy lives and to support medical research, thereby spending the day when TB will no longer take its toll from the homes of Palm Beach County.

THEREFORE, I, Robert W. Lanier, do urge every citizen to contribute generously to the sale of Christmas Seals.

Hoja Blanca Discovered In Mississippi Rice

Hoja Blanca, the virus disease which has made serious inroads into the rice production of some Latin American countries, has been found for a second time in the United States. Plant pest control officials in Mississippi have reported appearance of the virus in the southern end of the state. Hoja Blanca first appeared in the United States at Belle Glade in rice plantings in the vicinity of Lake Okechobee.

that infection was cleared up through a joint federal-state eradication program that included aerial applications of insecticides for the elimination of leaf hoppers suspected of transmitting the disease. In addition, the rice plantings were plowed under and disced at intervals thereafter to insure against the growth of volunteer rice in the infected areas.

The discovery of Hoja Blanca in Mississippi presents a serious threat to the commercial rice plantings in Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas.
